'Dad was always there'

Daughter tells why her father is the best

By Michelle Duell
Staff writer

Granite City resident Frank Soellner is the best dad in the world to his daughter, Rose Eckhard, also of Granite City.

"I'm so proud of the way he's so strong," the 36-year-old Eckhard said. "I've always told him that, too."

Eckhard wrote a letter to the Granite City Journal about her father that told why she thought he was the best one in the world. It was selected as the best of letters received in the Journal contest. Eckhard will receive $25 for her entry.

In the letter, she wrote: "My father came here, a teen from Romania. He attended night school to learn the machinist trade. Dad was always there for me. No matter what situation I got myself into, Dad was there. Dad supported me, and when I failed, he was there for me to talk to."

"I'll never forget that day. It was Thanksgiving (1991). The doctor called and said it was cancer. My dad said simply, 'Oh, shoot.'"

— Rose Eckhard

Eckhard, who said she loves her father deeply, was frightened a few years ago when she learned her father had throat cancer.

"I'll never forget that day," Eckhard said. "It was Thanksgiving (1991). The doctor called and said it was cancer. My dad said simply, 'Oh, shoot.'"

With treatment, he overcame that bout of cancer. (See DAD, Page 4A)

Young and old salute fathers

"My dad's bigger than your dad."

"No, he's not."

"Yes, he is."

"Oh yeah? Well my dad's the best."

"Oh yeah?"

Such conversations have taken place in school yards and back yards for generations. We may sometimes get angry at our fathers for disciplining us or not taking us to a ball game. But nothing restores our pride in him more than someone saying, "My dad's better."

Man critically hurt in shooting

Venice police investigating

By Michelle Duell
Staff writer

A Venice man was in critical condition at a St. Louis hospital Friday after he was shot several times in the back in a drive-by shooting in Venice, police said.

Venice Police Chief James Newsome said the victim, 36-year-old Henry Henderson, was walking at 1:23 p.m. Wednesday in the 100 block of Bancum Avenue when the shooting occurred.

According to witnesses, the shots were fired from a cream-colored pickup truck with a camper shell on it and a blue-green tailgate, Newsome said. The truck was carrying two or three black passengers, he said.

Evidence at the scene led police to believe a 9 mm semi-automatic weapon was used in the shooting, he said.

"We interviewed several witnesses who saw the truck leave the area," he said.

The vehicle bore no license plates, but apparently had an orange license application sticker in the window, Newsome said.

street by himself — maybe going home. He was walking in the direction of his home."

"No one else was injured in the shooting," Newsome said.

Newsome, who said he arrived at the scene of the shooting about two minutes after it occurred, called an ambulance, which took Henderson to St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City for emergency treatment. Henderson then was transferred to a St. Louis hospital. (See SHOOTING, Page 4A)

Where's the heat?

Businesses helped, hurt

By Cheryl A. Moody

Where's the summer? Where's the sun? When is it going to stop raining?

It is not just those eager for hot weather and tans asking these questions. So are people in business who are feeling the effects — both positive and negative — of this year's unpredictable and cool, rainy weather.

At Hard Body Gym in Pontoon Beach, manager Chris Hunkamp said the dearth of summer shine has left more people than normal for this time of year using the tanning salon.

And at Travel Express in Granite City, things are not slowing down to any of the warm-weather destinations, a travel agent

Payroll change proposed

By Michelle Duell
Staff writer

Pontoon Beach trustees may decide to cancel the village's agreement with Automotive Data Processing in St. Louis, which does the payroll for village employees.

Trustee Lou Whitwell proposed at a board of trustee meeting last week that the village discontinue use of ADP's services to allow the comptroller's office to take over payroll responsibilities.

The trustees voted on the proposal Tuesday with Randy Presswood, Gus Falter and Irene Karlechuk opposing it and Bob Vincent, Bob Abel and Whitwell favoring the action.

PONTOON BEACH

The tie vote could not be broken because Mayor Glen Wilson was ill and was not at the meeting.

Whitwell said that since the village's agreement with ADP about a year ago, the village had paid $2,003 for its services and that the comptroller's office was capable of resuming the responsibility.

"The ADP doesn't do anything we don't do," he said.

Falter, who spoke against the proposal, said that as long as ADP does payroll for Pontoon Beach, it's a good deal. (See PAYROLL, Page 7A)

Sims seeks conviction reversal

Her appearance at courthouse in Edwardsville creates a stir

Paula Sims may get a chance to argue in a Madison County courtroom that her first-degree murder conviction and life sentence for the 1989 slaying of her 6-week-old daughter should be overturned. Sims was tried and convicted in one of the most sensational murder cases in the area's history, and her return Wednesday to the Madison County Courthouse for a proceeding before Circuit Judge John DeLaurenti caused a stir among court-house employees and visitors. Sims, now 39, claims she didn't have effective legal counsel when she was prosecuted and convicted in 1990 of the murder of her daughter, Heather DeLaurenti. She granted a prosecution motion to dismiss the petition in 1994, but the Illinois Fifth District Appellate Court in Mount Vernon overturned the decision earlier this year.

ruling that the Madison County Public Defender's Office hadn't handled her case properly.

On Wednesday, DeLaurenti denied Sims' motion for an attorney from outside the Public Defender's Office. The judge also ordered Alton attorney Donald Groshong, who represented Sims during her trial and first appeal, to provide the Public Defender's Office with a copy of the trial transcript. Man charged with HIV transmission

Roommate also faces abuse charge

Prosecutors charged an East Alton man Wednesday with sexually assaulting two 15-year-old boys when he knew he carried the human immunodeficiency virus that causes AIDS.

The defendant's housemate also was charged with sexually abusing one of the boys. Glenard Dreihaupt, 31, was charged in Madison County Circuit Court with seven counts of criminal sexual assault and two counts of criminal transmission of HIV. A judge set bail totaling $300,000.

Shannon Walker, 28, was charged with one count of aggravated criminal sexual abuse. His bail was set at $75,000.

Dreihaupt was arrested without incident at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in Columbia by officers from the Columbia Police Department, said Maj. Darren Carlton of the East Alton Police Department.

Authorities said Dreihaupt, Walker and another man lived together in a house in the 100 block of East Alton Avenue. The offenses allegedly occurred between April 1 and May 27.

Madison County Assistant State's Attorney Susan Jensen said the men offered the boys a home at different times because the teen-agers were having problems in their own home. She said one of the boys was paid for doing chores around the house.

Carlton said authorities were alerted by an anonymous telephone call to an Illinois Department of Children and Family Services hot line about 10 days ago. He said the boys' mother was unaware of the crimes, and he said the third resident of the house apparently did nothing wrong.

Both boys have been interviewed by police, Carlton said. Authorities don't know if either of the boys contracted the HIV virus, he said. The teens now are living with out-of-town relatives.

"They have exams coming up in about a week," Carlton said.

Five more charged with prostitution

Police continue undercover operation

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Five Illinois women were charged with prostitution last week for allegedly offering sex for cash in Granite City.

The charges — four misdemeanors and a felony — are the result of a undercover activities by the Granite City police department.

"We will continue to arrest people who continue to do this in Granite City," said police Chief Dave Ruebhausen, noting that one of the women has six previous prostitution convictions in the past six years.

The women were all at large last Friday. Persons with information about their whereabouts should call police at 877-6111.

Jackie Lynn Smith, 41, of Carlyle, was charged with a felony count of prostitution in a warrant issued Thursday.

Bond on the warrant is $25,000. Smith allegedly offered oral sex to an undercover police officer in exchange for $20 in a May 4 incident. Smith was charged with a felony because she has six prior prostitution convictions, according to an information. Smith was also charged with resisting a peace officer for allegedly pushing and shoving police officers.

Eilerman named to state board

Gov. Jim Edgar named Ted Eilerman, president and CEO of St. Elizabeth's Center in Granite City, to the Illinois state Licensing Board.

As a member of the Licensing Board, Eilerman will vote to approve standards and policies proposed by the Board of Public Health. The board is responsible for the operation and licensing of hospitals. "It is an honor to be named to the board," Eilerman said. "I look forward to again serving the people, especially in the St. Elizabeth's Center area." The board meets for three years.

Eilerman named to state board

Gov. Jim Edgar has appointed Ted Eilerman, president and CEO of St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City, to the Illinois state Hospital Licensing Board. This is Eilerman's third appointment to the state board.

As a member of the Hospital Licensing Board, Eilerman will vote to approve all rules, standards and policy statements proposed by the Department of Public Health concerning the establishment, operation and licensure of Illinois hospitals.

"It is an honor to be appointed by Governor Edgar," Eilerman said.

"I look forward to once again serving the state of Illinois, especially in this important area." The appointment is for three years.

Ted Eilerman

Eilerman has a statewide view of the health care arena. He served as chairman for two years of the Illinois Hospital Association. He was appointed to the Statewide Health Coordinating Committee of Illinois by Govs. Dan Walker and Jim Thompson, and served two years as chairman of the committee.

Graduates look back, forward

'We begin our journey into real world'

By Michelle Duell
Staff writer

As 63 seniors at Madison High School marched into the auditorium at Madison Middle School last week, family members and friends cheered and applauded their graduation.

Members of the class of 1997 then bowed their heads in prayer, thanking God for bringing them to this point in their lives.

They listened as 17-year-old valedictorian Errin Turner gave a parting address.

"As I stand here this evening looking out at my fellow classmates," Turner said, "I am reminded of the last four years. As incoming freshmen, most of us had no idea what to expect from high school."

"Graduation, college, full-time jobs — these all seemed like distant dreams," she said. "But tonight, we can look back and ask ourselves where the past four years have gone so quickly."

"Now we will begin our journey into the real world, and all we will have left of high school is our memories," Turner said.

Turner, daughter of James and Debra Turner of Madison, graduated with a 4.0 grade point average. She said she plans to attend college at Southern Illinois University of Carbondale and major in interior design.

also addressed the Class of 1997.

"We have learned the words 'responsibility,' 'maturity,' 'priority' and most of all, we have learned to deal with challenges we will be facing in the future," Peterson said.

"The world is ours, and now we must go and conquer it," Peterson, 17, daughter of Harry and Helen Peterson, Madison, graduated with a 3.763 grade point average. She said she plans to study elementary education and SIUE.

Granite City High School seniors also graduated last week. Eighteen-year-old Amanda Solomon, daughter of Mary and Richard Solomon, was co-valedictorian with Sangeeta Kumar, daughter of Carol and Prasanna Kumar.

The valedictorians had tied grade point averages of 5.995 — a GPA obtained by taking accelerated classes in high school.

Solomon spoke to the Granite City graduating seniors about reflecting on the past and looking to the future, while Kumar addressed the class on values of the past and bringing them to the future.

Solomon said she plans to attend Hanover College in Indiana and study business and communication. Kumar said she plans to attend the University of Notre Dame and major in chemical engineering.

Venice High School held its commencement June 6. Salutatorian Nikya Bowers, 17, daughter of Allisia Bowers, and valedictorian Kiski Cotton, 18, daughter of Charles and Donna Cotton, addressed the graduating class.

Bowers, whose grade point average was 3.8, said she plans to attend Belleville Area College and transfer to Eastern Illinois University to study education.

Cotton, whose grade point average was 3.6, said she planned to study nursing at Deaconess College of Nursing in St. Louis.

Muny express bus service to begin June 20

Beginning June 20, Madison County Transit will make travel for Muny theater-goers a lot easier this summer.

MCT will sponsor Muny Fun Run Express service from the Alton/Tri-City and Edwardsville/Collinsville areas every Friday evening during the summer opera season.

Madison County Muny Fun Run Express fare for all passengers is $1.50 each way. Passes and transfers are not valid on the Muny Express. Return service leaves after each performance.

Advance reservations are requested from groups of 10 or more. Call Bi-State's Transit Information at (314) 982-1555 if more. Call Bi-State's Transit Information at (314) 982-1555 if more. Call Bi-State's Transit Information at (314) 982-1555 if more. Call Bi-State's Transit Information at (314) 982-1555 if more.

The Madison County Muny Fun Run Express schedule for the 1997 season's shows will operate on the following Fridays: June 20, "Joseph and The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat,"

June 27, "Funny Girl," July 11, "Three Coins in a Fountain,"

July 18, "Wizard of Oz," July 25, "A Chorus Line," Aug. 1, "South Pacific," and Aug. 8, "Hello Dolly!"

For theater-goers who prefer a weekday, Saturday or Sunday opera performance, MetroLink and the connecting MunyLink shuttle provide an alternative mode of travel. Madison County commuters can board MetroLink at the 5th and Missouri or East Riverfront stations, travel to the Forest Park station, connect to the MunyLink shuttle service from the Forest Park MetroLink station, and take a five-minute ride to the opera.

MunyLink shuttle service from the Forest Park MetroLink station begins 30 minutes before the Muny performance and operates at 15-minute intervals. For about 30 minutes after the evening's performance, passengers can board the shuttle for a return trip to the Forest Park MetroLink station.

Slemer said the Public Defender's Office will commit whatever resources necessary to prepare for a hearing on the petition as quickly as possible, but he said it is impossible to predict how long that may take.

Sims told DeLaurenti she also needs access to the file to pursue a federal court appeal. Sims had claimed Heather was abducted by a masked man from the family's Alton home.

Later, she pleaded guilty to obstruction of justice and concealment of a homicide in the 1986 death of her 13-day-old daughter, Lorelei. Sims had previously claimed a transient abducted Lorelei from the rural Brighton house where the family then lived.

Following her convictions, Sims, in 1992 interviews with author, Audrey Becker for the book, "My Sister's Secret," admitted allowing the infants to drown in bath water. She maintains she was suffering from postpartum depression when the children died.

Traffic signal blues

Poll finds residents concerned with traffic

Madison County residents don't like waiting at traffic signals.

That was one of the conclusions uncovered Tuesday during two hours of "electronic polling" of 125 people at Gateway Center in Collinsville.

Although some conclusions were painfully obvious, the point of the exercise was to prioritize goals to make funding decisions, said Jerry Kane, director of the Madison County Transit District.

County and city officials, businessmen and residents participated in the polling. The exercise was sponsored by the county's Long Range Transportation Plan, a $500,000 project undertaken by the County Board and the Transit District.

Participants looked at questions about transportation issues projected on a large screen. To respond, they pressed buttons on electronic devices in front of them. Results were tabulated instantly and flashed up on the screen.

In response to the question about traffic signals and intersections, 73 percent of the audience said improvements were "very important," which was one of the most emphatic responses all morning.

"It's obvious that people would like to see improvements, but the question is how we fund them," Kane said.

do we prioritize those and how do we fund them," Kane said.

In general, road widening and new roads received high support from the audience while non-traditional solutions such as bike trails received a more tepid reaction.

However, 79 percent said making subdivisions more accessible with foot paths and sidewalks was either important or very important.

MetroLink questions also received high support, with 63 percent of the audience saying they want the issue studied. Based on earlier studies, County Board Chairman Rudy Papa has committed his support to studying MetroLink.

The audience was split on proposals to raise the state motor fuel tax and vehemently opposed to a suggestion that interstate improvements be funded by higher vehicle registration fees.

Almost three-fourths of the group expressed support for tolls on bridges to pay for a new I-70 bridge north of downtown St. Louis.

County Board member Don Garrett, D-Madison, said he wished more people who use mass transit had been consulted for the transportation plan.

Glen Carbon resident Lee Presser told the crowd that they could no longer count on state and federal funds to improve roads. "Santa Claus is not coming to (Illinois) Routes 159 and 157."

The electronic polling session was coordinated by Bucher, Willis and Ratliffe, subcontracting with the Langley Group marketing professionals, who subcontracted with Swank of St. Louis.

Kane said he thought the electronic polling session cost about $4,000.

Real estate team reaches $1 million mark

Besserman and Stanley

The real estate team of Tina Stanley and Jerry Besserman, associates of Century 21 Bailey & Co., have reached the $1 million mark in production in 1997. With their business backgrounds, Stanley and Besserman take a consultative approach to selling real estate. "Today's customer demands and deserves quality customer service," said Stanley. "Forming a partnership seemed to be a logical business move to help provide such service. Our customers get the attention of two full-time professionals."

"It seems that too many people in our industry make promises that are not kept," Besserman said. "To insure our customers are not misled by false promises, we guarantee our promises in writing. We feel strongly in quality service." Both have consistently been recognized on the local, state and corporate levels for their achievements in the industry since starting their real estate careers.

They were recently recognized by the Century 21 organization for their individual 1996 production. Both are members of the Granite City Board of Realtors and belong to the Southwestern Illinois Regional Multiple Listing Service. They are contributors to the weekly real estate column, "Let's Talk Real Estate."

Financial planning is not just for the wealthy

Financial planning is an evolutionary wealth-accumulation process that can benefit everyone, not just the wealthy. It is a process that for most people deserves a closer look — particularly those who have substantial assets or who are trying to attain a particular financial goal.

And, if you are saving for retirement, planning to help your children through college, or inheriting a substantial sum of money, a sound financial plan will help you meet your investment objectives while minimizing your tax burden.

Before you attempt to establish a financial plan, you should understand the advantages it offers, how to choose a financial planner and what to expect from your financial planner.

A sound financial plan offers many advantages, including: Tax management. Because of the complex tax laws and regulations that have been passed by Congress over the past several years, tax planning is essential. Taxes will affect every phase of financial management.

Estate planning. Proper planning is essential to ensure that wealth and property are transferred smoothly, with a minimum of taxes owed by the heirs at the time of death. Without proper planning, up to 50 percent of an estate can be lost through taxes. In fact, in some instances, it is possible to eliminate estate taxes altogether or dramatically reduce them.

Retirement planning.

Brian Mulhall

Because most Americans save very little, retirement planning is becoming increasingly important. In fact, without a proper savings plan, many people will either have to work longer or sacrifice their desired retirement lifestyles.

College funding. A college education, even at a public institution, is a large investment. And college costs continue to rise annually. Planning ahead can help to ease the financial burden.

Risk management. Financial loss in the event of death, disability or property loss can be minimized by developing alternate income sources and having the appropriate amount of insurance coverage.

It's amazing how great certain health plans can sound until you apply them to your own situation.

Especially when you live in Southern Illinois. Where the health care needs aren't like the needs everywhere else.

You have your local doctors. You have your regional hospitals. And you have your specialists. But you don't have them all in one place. So even a promise like "you can choose any doctor in the state" isn't enough. Because at times, you may need doctors in cities like St. Louis or Evansville.

RightCHOICE was designed expressly for the people of Southern Illinois. People who need options and flexibilities beyond what you find in your ordinary health plan.

With RightCHOICE, you can choose your doctor from anywhere. Choose your hospital from anywhere. Even choose your deductibles. Whether you have an individual policy, or one through your employer.

Plus, through our association with HealthLink, one of the largest networks of doctors in the state, you can save when you use HealthLink doctors. And chances are your Illinois doctors are a part of HealthLink already.

Find out more about the health plan made for Southern Illinois. The one that's available nowhere else. Ask your insurance agent about RightCHOICE, ask your employer to make it available, or call us toll free at 1-888-800-7837.

Because if there's any place you should have more control, it's in the health care of your family. Where the only right choice is your choice.

Assessment test offered

Belleville Area College's Granite City Campus is offering ASSET, a math and English assessment and orientation program for new students, during June.

The test will be offered in Room 530 of GCC, 4950 Maryville Road.

The ASSET, which is free, will help students identify their strengths and weaknesses for proper placement in math and English courses by measuring writing, reading, numerical and/or algebraic skills.

The orientation segment of the program introduces students to BAC programs and resources. Fall semester registration is ongoing.

Students need photo identification for admission to ASSET. Students also should bring several sharpened No. 2 pencils.

ASSET will be offered from 5:30 to 9 p.m. on these Mondays: June 16, 23, and 30; and from 9 a.m. to noon on these Thursdays: June 19 and 26.

For more information on taking the ASSET at GCC, call the campus at 931-9600, extension 633.

Park district sets trip to Indiana July 25-27

The Granite City Park District will sponsor a three-day trip to Indiana on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 25-27.

The trip is entitled, "A Hootenanny and Hoedown" as Saturday night will wind down with a western meal and square dancers before a professional flower designer teaches each person how to arrange one dozen roses in his or her own container.

The group will leave from the Wilson Park Ice Rink and arrive at the hotel in Richmond in the early afternoon. After a welcome reception, they will depart for one of Indiana's best kept secrets — Bearcreek Farms. The 200-acre farm offers everything from farm animals, train rides, shopping village, flower shop, to two outstanding restaurants and a theater on the grounds with live, high-energy musical performances.

After a complete dinner in the barn the night's entertainment will be at the Good Times Theatre before heading back to Richmond for the night.

Saturday morning will begin after breakfast with a beautiful morning stroll through the Richmond Rose Garden featuring more than 1,600 rose bushes in addition to thousands of other annuals and perennials with the focal point being a lacy Victorian gazebo. Then it's on to Webb's Antique Mall, the largest of its kind in the U.S., for a short visit before traveling the Whitewater Valley Railroad to Metamora. A box lunch will be served on the train. Metamora boasts of 115 shops and time will be allowed for browsing as well as a horse-drawn canal boat ride. The last stop of the day will be the beautiful Gaar Mansion in Richmond.

En route home Sunday a stepon guide will meet the group in Indianapolis for a City Highlights Tour of the city, which will include a driveby of the many historic buildings, fabulous sports arenas and the new Circle Center. An outstanding buffet lunch will be served at Richards Farm in Casey, Ill., a favorite of park district travelers.

The trip will go on sale at 8 a.m. at the Wilson Park Ice Rink on Thursday, June 19. The cost of the trip is $320 for a single, $256 per person for a double, $235 per person for three to a room and $224 each for four to a room. The cost includes motorcycle, hotel, tours and entertainment, a dozen fresh rose flower arrangement, a surprise parting gift and all meals except for breakfast and lunch on the way to Indiana.

The entire amount must be paid at the time of registration. One person can sign up for one room from one to four persons. Residents of the park district will have priority and proof of residence must be presented for each person unless husband and wife. Non-residents in line will be placed on the waiting list immediately while those wishing to register by phone may do so after 12 noon on that day.

If more information is needed, call Sue Champion at her residence or the Wilson Park Office.

year with family vacations, but we are getting people who are depressed about the weather and want to go to Jamaica or Mexico somewhere.

"It's really no different than people getting aggravated about the winter."

The cool weather has hurt attendance at the Wilson Park Pool in Granite City. Business is down right now because of the weather and school still being in — it's been slow," said Supervisor Susan Scannell said.

For some private businesses, the effects of the weather has been significant.

Eric Peterson, owner of Peterson Concession Inc., said his sales are down about 50 percent compared to last year because of the weather. Peterson sells products to Tropical Snow stands and owns one of the sites in O'Fallon on Illinois 50. Tropical snows are Hawaiian shaved ice. "This is the worst year we've had in our six years of business," Peterson said.

He said his Tropical Snow stand is affected by the lack of swimmers at the O'Fallon Swimming Pool.

Belleville Public Swimming Pool manager Ben Warren said swimming pass sales and registration for swimming lessons is down by at least 25 percent.

He said while the water temperature is hovering around 70 degrees, the air temperature chills swimmers getting out of the water. Air temperatures have generally hovered in the 60 degree range.

Beach, the village is protected from mistakes that could cause problems with the Internal Revenue Service.

Before the village relinquished the responsibility to ADP, trustees learned that several hundred dollars in back taxes were owed to the IRS because of poor bookkeeping, a trustee said.

"It protects us from any liability for any taxes that are late and keeps us out of trouble with the IRS," Falter said of ADP.

The village's next meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 24. The tie vote could be resolved at that time.

ORGANIZATIONS

Protestant Welfare

The monthly board meeting of the Community Care Center of Protestant Welfare was held March 18 at the center. Denise Wright, president, welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with prayer. It was reported that a lot of cleanup work had been done in one of the warehouses. There is a need to renovate this area to be used for educational and other purposes, especially nutrition. Volunteers are asked to help on this project.

An installation of officers was given by Jan Bush, executive director. Those installed were Denise Wright, president; Tom Mattern, first vice president; Joyce Longbottom, second vice president; Jean Hileman, secretary; Becky Serich, treasurer; Sylvia Miller, assistant treasurer; and New Vision, the Rev. Ray Radee.

The final payment of the building was made through the generosity of a gift from the Ash family. Also, the roof is being repaired. There will be a Chuck Wagon dinner on Sunday, April 20, at the Knights of Columbus Hall. People will also be asked to bring canned food to be used in the food pantry.

Others present were Sandy Simpson, Babe Ameling, Lisa Fanning, Daryl and Ann May, Mable Gertsch, Dolores Vogler, Mae Lee, Ruth Hubbard, Eunice Wilkerson, Louis Longbottom and Loretta Cook.

Beta Sigma Phi

Members of Illinois Omicron Master chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Pat Tolliver on Jan. 8. The program was given by Evelyn Tolliver and highlighing the work of Baroness Aurora, better known as "George Sands," a proponent of equal rights for women. The second meeting was held in the home of Lora Mae Lombardi. The program was given by Joyce Alexander and focused on the Presidential inauguration, facts and figures.

The raffle item was won by Imogene Forrest. Members attended the 40th anniversary celebration of Pat and Phil Tsiporoloff, hosted by the couple's children. Other members not previously mentioned are Bea Brackett, Juanita Calve, Dolores Dorch, Arlene Haldeman, Alice Konieczny and Ruth Stoyanoff.

Members met at the home of Joyce Alexander on Feb. 5. The program was given by Pat Tsiporoloff on the lives and loves of Hugh Cronyn, Jessica Tandy, Ossie Davis and Ruby Dee, as well as their views on aging. The second meeting was held in the home of Dolores Dorch. A program was given by Lora Mae Lombardi, an article by Sandy LaRouche entitled "Can't Help Lovin' That Man," teaching us that love conquers all. The raffle item was won by Lombardi. President Dorch reminded members of the election of officers to be held next month.

Seniors Unlimited

Seniors Unlimited of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church held its monthly meeting in Wesley Hall. Associate Pastor Brian Caughlan gave the devotion, entitled "Risky Love" from a book by Max Lucado.

The Rev. Caughlan gave the prayer before lunch. After a delicious lunch of corned beef and cabbage, Becky Slate introduced the speaker, Addie Moore, from the Treehouse Wildlife Center Inc. of Brighton. Moore spoke of how they take in orphaned wildlife and injured wildlife, nursing them back to health and then releasing them back to the wilds. She showed slides of small or baby animals that the Treehouse has. She also brought along a screech owl in a cage and talked about the owl.

Del Groothuis announced that the group is taking a trip to the Mormon Temple being built in St. Louis. There were 88 in attendance.

Christian Temperance Union

The Granite City Woman's Christian Temperance Union held its March meeting March 10 in the basement of the Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church. Supper was served by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hutchison.

After the meal the meeting was called to order by the president, Doris Brown, the Rev. Bobby Samuel played a violin solo and Art Carls gave a devotional based on the thought of "New Beginnings." Brown told the group that a Loyol Temperance Legion for the boys and girls had been started. This is the children's arm of the WCTU. Charles Finley presented the program by showing a video named "Masquerade" which was unveiling of our deadly dance with drugs and alcohol. The video is distributed by Focus on the Family.

Association of Federal Employees

The National Association of Federal Employees Chapter 1067 met at Charles Restaurant in Granite City Tuesday, March 11. Lunch was served to 35 members.

Vee Throne, 1st vice president, gave the invocation and the members then repeated the pledge of allegiance to the flag. President Katherine Schockley called the meeting to order at 11:30 a.m.

Guest speaker was Mike Sparks, law enforcement officer of Granite City. He talked about the way senior citizens can and should protect themselves from con artists who prey on the elderly.

He stressed some of the things we should be concerned with are good door locks, sensor lights around the home, keeping blinds and drapes closed at night, shopping alone and making sure your car doors are locked at all times. The minutes of the February meeting were read by secretary Annette Scott and approved.

Helen Martin gave the treasurer's report subject to audit. Gerry Walters, legislative officer, said in his report that the group has 500,000 members in the National Association of Retired Employees.

There was one birthday celebrated in March. Charles Worster and Katherine Schockley each received a free dinner from Charles Restaurant.

Eagles Auxiliary

Before the March 11 meeting Eagles Auxiliary 1126, Carolyn Snider and Dorothy Lijewski from Parents of Specialized Education were escorted into the meeting and presented a check to buy a new copy machine.

The meeting was then opened by Allen. Roll call of officers was then taken and all were present with the exception of Conductor Helen Mih. Vera Johnson was conductor pro tem.

The re-enrollment of Betty Harrison was approved and one new application was read on the floor.

An invitation to attend the Nina Jackson reported on the Flag Day parade scheduled for June 14. Motion was made and accepted to give a donation to the Flag Day committee. Donations were also approved for Trails West Council BSA and the Eagleette Twirlers.

Visiting chairman Mildred Boyd sent get well cards to Jean Mullins, Sharon Case, Marlen Lipscomb and Leonard Shaffer and a sympathy card to Vernie Von Nida.

There was no jackpot winner as Esther Greathouse was not present. Florence Hagnauer and Helen Paschadag were winners of the Good of the Auxiliary.

Meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess, Florence Stokes, and her committee.

Party celebrates Alexis Cook's 6th birthday

Alexis Marie Cook celebrated her 6th birthday May 18. A party was given by her parents, Bob and Denise Cook. The party was hosted by her sisters, Erica and Tiffany, at McDonald's Restaurant. The children played games and had food and refreshments. Those in attendance were classmates, family and friends.

SANITATION OF THE STATION
Sanitation of the Salon is an important issue in the 90's. Infection and some diseases can be spread by the type of contact you have with your nail technician. Therefore, sanitation departments must be strictly followed by your nail tech for the health and safety of both of you. Some good sanitation procedures to look for in your salon are the disinfection of the tabletop between each client, a new client towel (paper or otherwise) for each client, the use of an antibacterial soap or hand sanitizer by you and your nail tech prior to your service and full immersion in a sanitizer implements such as cuticle pushers, acrylic brushes and electric drill points. Visiting a salon with these sanitation standards will ensure infection free nails.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20).
A cyclone of creativity whirls through this week's activities. Be there for kids. Old and new ways of doing things create conflict. Keep up with the times, but use a past experience to help you make common-sense decisions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21).
A frolicsome pair sparks romantic flames in a sparkling social crowd. Infatuation of the headiest kind may strike without warning. A longtime friend announces a major move or perhaps a new baby.

CANCER (June 22-July 22).
Excellent love possibilities abound with a Scorpio, Pisces or Capricorn. You have a strong chance for love, as someone wonderful will soon be free to be with you. A silly argument can spoil a party.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22).
Someone dear considers friendship more important than marriage and releases a no-strings-attached linkup. The past is cleared away, and you are reunited with family members. Decisions are easy to make, and you won't be sorry.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 15).
A stellar opportunity in the next six weeks takes you two notches up. August is a money month. Keep co-workers from acting jealous in September by using modesty and generosity. Your best sign for love are Capricorn and Libra. February's valentines are romantic promises and may bring weddings. Everybody needs your help in March — go to the highest bidder. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22).

Virgo's smoldering appeal magnetizes everyone around. Your family is going through big adjustments, and your vision of the future is needed. An older, wiser person is showing you the ropes.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23).
Your seductive charm feeds your career plans. A powerful someone succumbs to your allure and puts his or her social and corporate clout at your disposal. A Gemini loves you. Surprises lead to understanding and insight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21).
Mix with the jet set. Adventure-seekers discover bliss and financial bonanzas in each other's arms. Take a strong stand. Care for possessions, but put off major repairs or purchases for a few days.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21).
A stout-hearted individual finally breaks the chains of an old entanglement and opens the door to a more fulfilling new romance. An important friendship with a major player counts. Write down your dreams.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19).
You are intent on making money while seeking the ultimate love thrill. Powerful mental energy blends with tenacity and a keen practical outlook for large-scale accomplishments.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18).
You seek and find productive openings in your job or career. Here's a tip: Be certain that the income from new employment will meet your needs. A gallery or museum excursion lets you show off your intellect.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20).
Adventure calls — if your plans for the future appear to be jeopardized by sudden developments, improvise and be resourceful. A chat with a Libra reveals common interests in music or art.

Summer Concert Series at BAC

The place to find jazz, country, and big band music this summer is Belleville Area College.

The Summer Concert Series includes six programs at the Belleville Campus, 2500 Carlyle Ave. All shows begin at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria. The concerts are free and open to the public.

BAC College Activities presents the Summer Concert Series in cooperation with the Music Performers Trust Fund, Local 29 — Belleville Musicians, and the Recording Industry of America.

The Summer Concert Series schedule includes:
June 17 — Bob Dill and His Four of a Kind

Dill's band performs a variety of music, ranging from Dixieland jazz to rock 'n' roll.

June 24 — The Noblemen
The Noblemen, a 17-piece band composed mainly of Shriners, has performed at numerous civic and club events in the Metro East. The group's repertoire features many classics including selections from Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, and Jimmy Dorsey. This concert will take place on the front lawn of the campus, weather permitting.

July 1 — Fiddlewheel Five
Dixieland jazz flavors the style of the listening and dancing music performed by this band.

July 8 — San An-Tones
This band is known in the local area for its country western flavor.

July 15 — Jerry's Kids
This swing ensemble will perform a second concert in the series. The tunes range from old standards to dance music.

For more information about the Summer Concert Series, contact the Office of College Activities at 235-2700, extension 205, for toll-free in Illinois at 1-800-BAC-5131, extension 205.

NEWS

•Planning

To help develop a good financial plan, a professional financial planner should be consulted. Financial planners may specialize in several disciplines, including law, insurance and investing. The right planner should be able to advise you about life insurance plans, basic cash budgeting, mutual fund investments and stock and bond purchases.

Choosing the right financial planner for your financial needs is essential. Begin by talking with friends or relatives who have had success with planners, but keep in mind that the planners who were right for them may not be right for you. Ask prospective planners for documentation of their success and check their references. Also, check out their professional credentials, education, and training. And don't be afraid to interview planners until you find one you feel comfortable working with.

Planners generally are compensated by three different methods. Some charge a flat fee for their services. Some charge a fee plus commission on the financial products they sell, and others are paid exclusively on a commission basis.

To develop the most appropriate financial plan and to avoid future problems, you should understand what you can and cannot expect from a financial planner. For instance, a good planner should:

- ✓ Analyze your tolerance for risk and discuss it with you.
 - ✓ Explain the difference between investing for growth and investing for income.
 - ✓ Suggest ways you can improve managing money and discuss any questions you may have about personal investing.
 - ✓ Offer you alternatives and choices.
 - ✓ Act as your liaison with other advisors, such as lawyers, accountants, and stockbrokers.
 - ✓ Set up a schedule, including specific review dates, to monitor your plan.
- An effective financial plan is critical to your economic health. It will allow you to meet short- and long-range goals, minimize your tax burden, and prepare for and safeguard your financial future.

Circus sends in 'Class Clowns'

Children who like to clown around will be right at home next week, when the Moolah Shrine Circus comes to town.

The circus is giving local children the chance to be clowns for a day. Children will have their faces made up as a clown, and will learn from real performers what it takes to be a real clown.

The little clowns will march in the grand entry preceding each of three circus performances June 21, with 25 children before each show.

Children also will receive two tickets to the circus and a certificate recognizing them as official "Class of '97 Moolah Shrine Class Clowns."

Winners will receive a packet with details in the mail. Members of the Suburban Journals' "Class Clown of '97" contest are: Five to 9-year-olds: Kyle Acheson, Ryan B. Basch, Rachel Beckemeyer, Dennis Bischof, Daniel Bollwerk, Stephan Calvin, Zeitravia C. Coleman, Oleatha Craig, Robert Farr, Miranda Fisher, Ben Fredericksen, Chad Gelardi, Rob Gilmore, David Haas, Rachel E. It's hard to pick just one reason for using MEMORIAL'S CARDIOVASCULAR SERVICES...

...So we listed just a few.

In 1980, we introduced high-tech interventional cardiology to this area. Since then, providing the latest cardiovascular services close to home has been a high priority --- a job we take to heart.

Regardless of how others package or promote cardiovascular services, we still prefer to keep things simple - but high tech...and highly effective. When you need comprehensive cardiac care, you can count on Memorial to provide:

✓ Experienced Medical Staff cardiologists who work closely with your personal physician to diagnose and treat your cardiac and related medical problems.

✓ Cardiovascular nursing professionals and imaging technologists specially-trained in the latest cardiac diagnostic evaluation and testing.

✓ The modern cath labs, state-of-the-art cardiac diagnostic testing and the latest cardiac interventional technologies you've come to expect from Memorial.

✓ Critical care nursing personnel to provide you high tech care with the human touch --- something you can count on at Memorial.

✓ Innovative cardiac rehabilitative programs in locations convenient for you --- the YMCA of Southwestern Illinois, Belleville Health and Sports Center and Memorial.

Low key, high-tech, highly-effective...
Memorial's Cardiovascular Services.

You asked...so we delivered.

At Memorial Maternity Center, we strive to meet your needs. We asked our patients what was important to them.

As a result, we've added some childbirth education classes as well as changed some existing ones to meet your needs. Our childbirth education classes will help you prepare for a birth experience that will meet your expectations!

Prepared Childbirth Class

This class provides eight hours of in-depth preparation for labor and birth, including breathing and relaxation exercises. Options for you and your baby's care at Memorial Maternity Center will be shared to help make your birth a personalized and positive experience. Participants are encouraged to register before the fifth month of pregnancy and attendance is limited to those delivering at Memorial. There is a $25 per couple fee. Call 257-5855 for class dates and times.

Childbirth Refresher Class

The Childbirth Refresher Class is designed to give experienced parents updated information about the latest trends in labor, delivery and newborn care. Limited to those who will deliver at Memorial, this class is held from 7 to 9 p.m. on the first Monday of the month. $5 per couple fee. For more information, call 257-5855.

Vaginal Birth After Cesarean (VBAC) Class

This class addresses questions about vaginal births after cesarean (VBAC) and why VBAC's can be safer than repeat cesarean deliveries for both mother and baby. You also will learn how to maximize your chances of having a vaginal birth. Class meets 7-9 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of the month. It is free to those attending Prepared Childbirth or Refresher Classes (we strongly recommend attending these as well) or $5 fee per couple if not taking these classes. Call 257-5855 to register.

Baby Care and Parenting Classes

This two-session program teaches you how to care for, play with and protect your infant from birth to age 12 months. Topics presented include: newborn care, infant feeding, baby bathing, when to call the doctor, home and toy safety, returning to work, finding a good babysitter and traveling with baby. Held from 7 to 9 p.m. on the third and fourth Wednesday of every month, this class has a $5 per couple fee. Call 257-5855 to register.

Sibling Class

Memorial Maternity Center offers a Sibling Class to make it easier for big brothers and sisters to prepare for and accept a new baby. This class is designed for children ages 3 through 12 and meets from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on the first Monday of each month. Limited to children whose sibling will be born at Memorial Maternity Center. $2 per child fee. Class size is limited and reservations are requested. Call 257-5855.

New Family Night

Once you have a baby, take time for an informal evening out. Meet with other new parents and a registered nurse to discuss parenting concerns and have questions answered. Held 7-8:30 p.m. on the first Monday of the month. Infants welcome; $5 per couple. Call 257-5855 to register.

Prenatal Breastfeeding Class

This class is designed to provide vital information to those who are considering breastfeeding their baby. The class meets from 7 to 9 p.m. on the second Wednesday of every month. This class has a $5 fee per couple. Both parents are encouraged to attend. For more information, call 257-5855.

Breastfeeding Help for New Mothers

This service addresses concerns you may have about breastfeeding after you are discharged from the hospital. Information and support will be provided for those crucial early days and weeks of nursing a newborn. There is no fee for this service. Call 257-5855 to talk with a nurse or to arrange a help session.

FAMILY

Young at Heart to meet Monday

Young at Heart senior citizens of Holy Family Catholic Church held their monthly meeting on May 19 in the church community center.

The meeting was called to order by President Irma Manning. Sister Jean Patrick led the group in prayer, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Minutes of the April meeting were read by the recording secretary, Cleola Siebert. In the absence of Cecelia Mance, treasurer, Lucille Caban gave the treasurer's report. Corresponding secretary, Ann Kovach reported receiving thank you cards from Sister Jean Patrick and Sister Mary Alice. A thank you card was received from Rose Marie Schmitt for the sympathy card she received on the death of her sister.

Cleola Siebert reported get well cards were sent to: Helen Mooshegian, Ann Zinn, Irene Kadane, Vincine Zerlin and Cecelia Cruse. Sympathy cards were sent to the families of: Ann Zinn, Rose Marie Schmitt and Winifred Kelly. Membership chairperson, Connie McGee, reported 73 members in attendance.

Birthdays celebrated in May were: Clotilde Mosby, Mary Siebert, Ann Kovach, Fran Gruber, Frances Bury, Marilyn Schooley and Art Lindner. Anniversary celebrated in May was Frances and Elmo Bury, 50 years.

Irma Manning president, reported the nominating committee for selecting the new slate of officers for 1997-98 are George Sotiroff, Warren Bequette and Frances Pelate.

Irma Manning reported a cruise on the Casino Queen is scheduled for Monday, June 23; price of $2 includes transportation and breakfast.

Another trip is scheduled for Nov. 29 and 30, to Paradise Peoria, price $55. Reservations will be taken at the June meeting. Deadline date for reservations is September 19.

Attendance prizes were won by Victoria McQuay, Thelma Ward, Aileen Pirtle, Ernie Wood, Winifred Bringer, Mary Siebert, Francis Bringer, Wilma Jones and Marie Szymczek.

The next monthly meeting will be at 7 p.m. June 18 in the church community center.

Jan and Art Oberle, Young at Heart members, celebrated their 31st anniversary.

Winifred and Francis Bringer, Young at Heart members, celebrated their 57th anniversary.

Q. To Dmitri Young - Who was your inspiration when you were young?
From: Steve Gorkon, Caseyville, IL

A. As a kid, I grew up a New York Mets fan and my favorite players were Dwight Gooden and Darryl Strawberry. While they did get into off-field troubles later in their careers, I admired the natural, raw talent they displayed on the field and the impact they made as such young players.

Early offense, great pitching lifts Post 113

BASEBALL

By Patrick C. Heston
Staff writer

Tri-City Post 113 raised its legion record to 3-2 Thursday night with a convincing 6-1 win over Collinsville before a delighted home crowd.

Fueled by a fast start and a strong complete game pitching performance by Justin Bettor, the Triplets made it look easy.

"Against Waterloo (on Wednesday) we gave up four runs in the first inning," said Tri-City manager Ralph Burnett. "We got caught watching instead of being aggressive. We were back on our heels. As a result, we put ourselves in a bad situation. But, we finished strong in that game. Before this game I told the kids that if we would play an entire game with the same intensity we finished against Waterloo, there are not many teams that could beat us."

The pep talk worked. Tim Wallace lined Jerry Tipton's first pitch into left field to start the home half of the first inning. Scott Smallie then stroked a 2-2 pitch to center.

And when Kyle Briggs followed with an opposite field single to left, the Triplets were in front 1-0. Kenny Lutz bobbled Briggs' hard grounder, allowing Briggs and Smallie to advance to second and third.

Dustin Brewer's double to right center chased home both runners and gave Tri-City a quick 3-0 lead. Jeff Hayden singled to bring Brewer home.

Senior vet leads Maroons to state

By Scott Marion
Staff writer

When her team needed her most, Lindsay Rust came through.

Rust, a senior center fielder on the Belleville West softball team, delivered an RBI triple in the sixth inning to give the Maroons a 7-5 lead over Murphysboro in Monday's sectional championship game.

It proved to be the winning run in West's 7-6 victory and sent Rust and her teammates to the Class AA state tournament in Pekin, where they defeated Machesney Park High 1-0 Thursday afternoon in a quarterfinal game.

Rust, who caught a fly ball for the final out of the sectional game, is the Illinois Journal Athlete of the Week. She leads the Maroons in batting average (.350), RBIs (350), hits (36) and triples (five).

"It was very symbolic that Lindsay caught the ball that sent us to state," said West coach Bob Yagge. "She's our only senior and she wanted the ball."

"She came on very strong at the end of the season. She's not a vocal leader, but when she does say something, the kids listen to her. They watch her example because they know she's been to state in other sports. She's a person you can have confidence in."

Men's fastpitch back in swing

One of the smartest moves of my athletic career was to avoid trying to hit a fastpitch softball. I would have made the pitching distance of 46 feet seem much closer, and there's no telling how many half swings I would have had while trying to decide to swing or not.

I had such thoughts last week while the Belleville City Softball fastpitch men's league hosted its annual Dave Groh Memorial Tournament at South Side Park — especially when I glanced at the league standings.

While the defending league champion Eager Beavers were in first place with a 2-1 record and defending playoff champion John D's was 2-2, Muehl's of Smithton was 2-4 with Gladstone of St. Louis 3-2, the Southern Illinois Merchants of Carbondale 3-4 and the Mules of St. Louis 1-3.

Reduced to seven teams because of an apparent decrease in interest in fastpitch and bulked by the three out-of-Belleville area teams, the City League might appear to have a change of appearance in 1997.

Yet, when I reconsider the 46-foot distance, I know the challenge to hit fastpitch remains the same and when I consider some of the already established statistical leaders, I know the league is surviving quite well.

To support my contention, I spoke with Noel Schott of Belleville, the veteran coach of the Beavers and the league vice president.

A tale of 2 tribes GCHS squads gearing up for Prairie State Games

HOCKEY

By Patrick C. Heston
Staff writer

Welcome to the War Between the States, part two.

Missouri's Mid-States Club Hockey Association and Illinois' Mississippi Valley Club Hockey Association both want the Granite City Warriors to play hockey with them for the 1997-98 season.

The result is not one, but two hockey teams made up of Granite City High School athletes. One will play in Missouri, the other in Illinois.

The Granite City Mid-States warriors remain in the MSCHA. The Granite City Illinois Warriors are new members of the MVCHA.

The MSCHA is expanding to 42 teams in six conferences for the fall campaign. Wentzville, Affton, Priory and DuBourg are expected to be added to the current roster of 38 teams. Last year's Divisions A-F will give way to conferences based on rivalry. The conferences include West, North, South, Central, Metro, and St. Charles.

"The main advantage is going back to natural rivalries," said Mid-States president Bill Myers. "We changed our emphasis to rivalries, and we think that we will keep the competition level high."

But Myers' ultimate goal is for hockey to become a sanctioned sport by the Missouri State High School Activities Association. The MSHSAA sanctions championships in sports with a minimum of 50 participating teams.

"Our all-time goal has been to become a state-sanctioned sport," said Myers. "I'd like to say we could do it within the next five years, but there's a lot we don't know that's involved in doing it."

The 1997 Prairie State Games High School Hockey Festival kicks off on Monday, June 16, with four games involving area teams.

Teams are divided into two tiers. The Lincoln Tier consists of the Belleville Alhoff Crusaders, the Alton Marquette Explorers, the Roxana Shells, the Cahokia Comanches and the Granite City Illinois Warriors.

The Douglas Tier teams are the Belleville East Lancers, the Alton Redbirds, the Edwardsville Tigers, the Belleville West Maroons and the Granite City Mid-States Warriors.

The high school hockey festival schedule is as follows:

Monday June 16
5:45 p.m. Crusaders vs. Comanches
7 p.m. Lancers vs. Maroons
8:15 p.m. Illinois Warriors vs. Explorers
Tuesday June 17
9:30 p.m. Tigers vs. Redbirds
7 p.m. Shells vs. Crusaders
8:15 p.m. Mid-State Warriors vs. Lancers

Cahokia High hires Baum as new AD

By Karen Vartanian

What Russ Baum has desired for the past 10 years, he has finally received.

Baum, who has spent 23 years teaching and coaching at Cahokia High School, was hired as the school's athletic director in mid-April.

He takes over for Teresa Arnold, who held the job for five years.

"I am very excited," Baum said. "I'm a little overwhelmed right now. I'm just now getting my toes wet. I enjoy working with people. I've coached and worked with other kids and other coaches long enough."

"This is something I've wanted for 10 years."

to be challenging, but it will be a lot of fun."

Baum started this week becoming acquainted with his new post. One of his first assignments was moving his office closer to the gymnasium.

"Teresa was more in the middle of the school," Baum said. "Mine is at the end of the hall next to the gym. So I've been moving the past couple of days. And most of the schedules are done for next year."

During his 23 years at Cahokia, Baum spent 13 (1977-1990) as the head wrestling coach, where he garnered the most notoriety. He served as assistant wrestling coach for three years prior.

to state in other sports. She's a person you can have confidence in."

Rust, a three-year starter in softball, will attend Indiana State University on a volleyball scholarship. She was also a standout in basketball before leaving the team early in her senior season.

"Basketball didn't end the way I wanted it to, so this is really special," Rust said. "We never expected this to happen, but it did and we're making the best out of it. We're a young team and we had the potential, but we weren't sure if it would come out until next year."

Three of West's four losses in the regular season came to Belleville East, but the Maroons beat the Lancers 4-2 in the regional championship game on June 3.

"When we got beat by East the last time (4-0 on May 22), it made us wake up," Rust said. "We weren't playing our best — we weren't hitting the ball and we were making errors. We started working harder in practice. We realized we had to play better or our season would be over soon. But I wouldn't have minded eight losses (to East) as long as we won in the regional."

Rust enjoys being the lone senior on the team.

"It's kind of neat," she said. "When I was younger, we had a lot of seniors and we were scared of them. But our team is real close; they joke about me being the granny. But we're all equal in talent."

"At the sectional game, everybody knew what they had to do. But I'm glad that last ball came to me. I like the responsibility and I like the pressure. I'm used to it."

"At the beginning of the year I was having problems with my swing on outside pitches. But I worked on becoming smarter and taking the ball to the opposite field. I'm definitely a better hitter this year."

Rust, who signed with Indiana State last fall, will room with former Belleville East standout Jen Dallao, who recently completed her first season with the ISU volleyball team.

coached freshman and junior varsity football for 11 years. He is still the freshman coach.

The Decatur native, who has been the physical education coach for 18 years, coached track for 10 seasons as well.

"It will benefit a lot," Baum said of being so familiar with CHS. "I'm on pretty friendly terms with the other athletic directors in the area. But I haven't been as involved in the community as I need to be."

The first step is constructing a new track. Arnold began the groundwork for an upgraded facility that Baum will now try to complete.

"Teresa got it started," Baum said. "That's one of the biggest things. We need a better facility. We're trying to get a rubberized track — it would be great for the community. That's one of our goals."

Another order of business is establishing better camaraderie between coaches.

"We need to get the coaches working together," Baum said. "Most are interested in their sports and no one else's. We want young, gung-ho coaches to get involved with all the kids. I think we can bring all of us together. When I first started coaching, all of the coaches would get together after the games. We were involved with each other's sports."

"It makes it a lot more fun when you're involved with the whole program." Along with his other accomplishments, Baum also received his master's degree in administration from SIUE in 1987-88.

He played an instrumental role with the Prairie State Games for nearly 10 years. Baum has been the vice president of the Illinois Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association for 10 years, basically serving as the liaison with southern Illinois.

He has been the downstate representative for the Illinois Wrestling Federation for 10 years as well.

"It's going to be another challenge," said Baum, who is a wrestling referee in the winter.

"Both of the St. Louis teams have good young pitchers," said Schott, referring to righthanders Charlie Beard (Gladstone) and Britt Hamblin (The Mules).

Meanwhile, the Beavers have experience in pitcher Shane Huwer and youth in Todd Strudthart, who fill a void left by the retirement of another righthander — Bill Phillips.

"I still think when the weather gets warm, Billy might come back," said Schott.

Back for another season, though, is experienced lefthander (that's a term for the age 50 bracket) Pete Kuhlenskamp with Carbondale, while Muehl's prevailed on the hurling of Rich Tilt, who struck out 60 batters in his first 26 innings. Among the early-season hitting leaders were catcher Mike Rakers of defending state champion John D's with seven runs batted in after four games and all-star outfielder Jay Brucker with three home runs for Hank's. Former pro player Mike Hopkins of Muehl's had a .538 batting average after six games while playing shortstop.

EXTRA INNINGS: Leroy Escher of Belleville is the president of the Belleville City Softball League, which now plays regular season games on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings with a doubleheader format.

Regarding softball, the girls high school game has advanced a fashion that appears ahead of the progress of girls basketball.

According to O'Fallon High assistant Coach Matt Young, "Summer camps and select teams during the summer have done nothing but improve the caliber of the girls game."

and the Triplets had five straight hits and a 4-0 advantage.

Tipton settled down, striking out three straight batters to end the frame, but the damage had been done.

"Jerry (Tipton) pitched about three innings in his entire high school career," said Collinsville manager Steve Helmkamp. "We sort of rolled the dice by starting him tonight. He was a bit nervous and shaky at the start, but he settled down and pitched very well. He did well enough to get another shot, but we just gave him no support."

With a 4-0 lead, Bettorf cruised on the mound, scattering six hits and striking out 10. The left-hander yielded only a bloop single over the last 3 1/3 innings.

"We've been hitting the ball real well this year, but Bettorf just had our number," said Helmkamp. "He's a very good pitcher and he did a great job tonight."

Burnett agreed.

The ultimate question for Granite City coaches, players and fans is, "What happens to the Warriors if hockey in Missouri becomes a sanctioned high school sport?"

Once again in 1997-98, the Warriors will be the only Illinois team in the Mid-States. Last season, Granite City finished fourth (6-10-2) in Division C of Tier I.

By contrast, the MVCHA is a high school league comprised of 14 teams, all from Illinois, divided into Northern and Southern tiers.

The Granite City Illinois Warriors will be Southern Tier members for the 1997-98 hockey season, along with teams from Collinsville, Cahokia, Belleville, Althoff, Belleville East, Belleville West and O'Fallon.

Members of the Northern Tier are Alton, Alton Marquette, Bethalto Civic Memorial, East Alton-Wood River, Edwardsville, Roxana and Piasa Southwest.

As the newest members of the MVCHA, the Warriors will now have the opportunity to compete against traditional rivals from Illinois.

"There were a number of kids who wanted to play against teams from Illinois," said Illinois Warriors Hockey Club president Dan Svezia. "That is the reason we petitioned for inclusion in the Mississippi Valley Club Hockey Association. We will play a 19 game association schedule — playing teams in our own tier twice and teams in the other tier once — against what are natural rivalries for the kids."

"We hope to offer the high school player a quality hockey experience in the MVCHA," said Sam Gaurnio, president of the MVCHA. The league, in only its second year, has already been quite successful.

More than 25,000 spectators paid to attend MVCHA hockey games last season at the Wilson Park Ice Rink, the East Alton Ice Rink and the Cahokia Ice Rink.

The MVCHA follows voluntarily many of the rules of the Illinois High School Association. However, hockey is currently not a sanctioned high school sport in Illinois, and the Warrior team, like its counterpart in the Mid-States, is not an official part of the athletic program of GCHS.

Paul Solberger, an intermediate level coach and a level three hockey referee, is the head coach of the Warriors. Like Mid-States Warriors coach Dave Yurkovich, Solberger is busy getting his team ready for the upcoming Prairie State Games.

"We're a young team consisting mainly of underclassmen. However, our players have a lot of hockey experience," said Solberger.

Once the Prairie State games are completed, additional players will be added to fill out the varsity hockey fall season roster.

"It used to be that once hockey season ended, you didn't think about hockey anymore," said Svezia. "There wasn't a year-around rink available. Now, with the East Alton Ice Arena and another one opening in Fairview Heights, kids from the area can play hockey all year long. That's only going to help our program."

Construction slowed as strike continues

By Jim Merkel
Staff writer

A two-week-old strike by drivers of trucks containing ready-mixed concrete is slowing construction throughout the area and may put thousands of people in related industries out of work.

Since about 300 ready-mixed drivers belonging to Teamsters Local 682 went on strike June 2, those at most construction projects in the area have had to do other work or stop working altogether.

As the strike continues, many companies building houses, putting in roads and doing

"My guess is there's probably 2,000 to 3,000 construction workers out of work now. If it drags on, of course, every day there's more people unemployed."

— Rick Grebel
KCI president

other work will have an increasingly difficult time making due without concrete. "I think it's serious now," said Rick Grebel, president of KCI Construction.

Throughout the St. Louis area, "My guess is there's probably 2,000 to 3,000 construction workers out of work now," Grebel said. "If it drags on, of course, every day there's more people unemployed."

On June 13, Grebel said the strike is affecting projects his company is doing on bridges across Interstate 270 at Gravois and Tesson Ferry roads, on pump stations on the River des Peres and the Compton Hill Reservoir in St. Louis.

It's also hurting progress on his company's work at the St. Louis County Justice Center in Clayton, the TWA Training Center near Lambert-St. Louis International Airport and at a parking garage in University City.

In the strike, Teamsters Local 682 is targeting the 11 ready-mixed companies that are members of the St. Louis Material Dealers Association. The truckers bring concrete mixed at plants to commercial, industrial, residential and other customers.

"The 11 companies are pretty much all shut down. Some companies are running either management or a few replacement drivers," said Gill McKean, president of Breckenridge Material Co. and president of the St. Louis Material Dealers Association.

He said a few smaller companies responsible for perhaps 15 percent of total area capacity that aren't members of his association aren't affected by the strike.

McKean said 3,000 jobless may be a good estimate of the number of people out of work as a result of the strike.

"There is work being done, but it's operation that includes concrete," said Don Spencer, acting director of the St. Louis County Highway and Traffic Department. "There's not any concrete being delivered."

"The county will open bids for concrete work on subdivision streets June 16, Spencer said. Since the work probably wouldn't start for another month, there wouldn't be a delay in such work until the middle of July, he said.

One county road project being affected in South County is on Hawkins Road near Rockwood Summit High School, Spencer said.

At the Missouri Department of Transportation, spokesman Thomas J. Miller said the projects that could affect South County motorists most seriously are at interchanges across I-270 at Gravois and Tesson Ferry roads.

"Right now, they are continuing to prepare the deck, prepare the bridge for concrete to be poured on top of it," said Miller. He said KCI Construction has about a week to 10 days before work comes to a halt.

At the Interstate 270/I-44 interchange, iron work continues on flyover ramps, but work could end when the contractor must pour more concrete. Work on the Geyer Road Bridge is halted.

Meanwhile, work on a new Highway 141 in the Fenton area continues because the contractor makes concrete on-site rather than relying on ready-mix trucks, Miller said.

In the City of St. Louis, street department director Jim Suelmann said his department hasn't been seriously affected because it doesn't do a lot of concrete work.

However, contracted sidewalk work has been cut by about half because of difficulty in getting concrete. And the city water division is having trouble getting concrete to repair streets after it fixes water lines in the middle of thoroughfares.

Renell Wynn, spokeswoman for the Missouri Department of Labor, said her department can't determine yet whether the strike has had an effect yet on unemployment compensation claims from associated industries.

While work slows on various construction projects, McKean said further talks are scheduled for this week on a new contract. He said he's not commenting on issues involved or how long it might take to reach a new agreement.

Millstadt firefighters battle the blaze at Strauss Funeral Home Tuesday morning

Millstadt funeral home after fire

By Marge Wilson
Staff writer

Despite last Tuesday's fire, Kermit and Suzanne Mueller will be carrying on their mortuary business with help from their partner and friends.

"We're grateful for everyone who has offered their help," Suzanne said Wednesday. Despite the substantial damage from the conflagration last Tuesday morning at Strauss Funeral Home, 7 East Mill in Millstadt, the telephone was being answered on Wednesday by a Strauss representative. Services will be held at the Muellers' allied funeral homes in Cahokia and Dupon and perhaps other locations, Zion United Church of Christ has offered their building and "the other funeral home in town (Creason's) has graciously offered to allow us to use their location for services," Suzanne said. "Also, churches and other funeral homes from other communities have offered their help."

Suzanne said the consensus seems to be that the fire was caused by a short in a television set that the couple bought her mother recently. Her mother has an apartment in the Strauss building. The set was turned off, Mueller said. However, firefighters think it could have shorted and caused the fire, said Assistant Millstadt Fire Chief Kurt Pellmann.

Mueller said an estimate of damage had not yet been completed by the insurance company. The Millstadt Volunteer Fire Department received word of the fire about 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Pellmann said. He said the fire was brought under control in about 50 minutes. Firefighters remained at the location until about 12:30 p.m., checking for hot spots and closing holes in the roof, he said.

"We ventilated the roof to get the heat and smoke out, broke through the roof."

There were no injuries in the fire. No one was in the building at the time, Pellmann said.

Pellmann said a total of 20 firefighters took part in the action, including those from Smithton as well as Millstadt. Five trucks were at the scene, three Millstadt pumpers and a Millstadt rescue truck, plus a pumper from the Smithton Fire Department under a mutual aid agreement. The Columbia Fire Department also provided a pumper and crew which stood by at the Millstadt fire house, Pellmann said.

Pellmann said some of the Millstadt firefighters had just returned from an accident on Schwab Road when they got the call to go to the funeral home. The incident was the 59th call of the year, he said.

Pellmann said the Millstadt Ambulance Department was also standing by. "Any time there is a structure fire, they respond," Pellmann said.

He said ambulance workers provided drinking water for the firemen and the nearby Subway restaurant provided lunch.

Suzanne Mueller said the funeral home business was begun by her great-grandfather, Peter Strauss, in 1861 on a nearby lot. She said the present building had been remodeled several times.

Millstadt Fire Chief Kent Ohendorf said this was one of the largest fires that have occurred in the village recently.

Civil War re-enactment planned for J.B. Park

By Jim Merkel
Staff writer

Ulysses S. Grant spent time at Jefferson Barracks. So did Robert E. Lee and many of the soldiers who fought in the Civil War.

As much as anything else, that makes Jefferson Barracks as good a location as any for one of the largest Civil War re-enactment events in the area in recent years.

As many as 1,000 Civil War re-enactors from several states will converge on Jefferson Barracks Park June 21 and 22 for the first large-scale re-enactment in the St. Louis area since 1988.

"We are sort of putting together the best we have seen around the country at various times," said Nancy Herndon of the Jefferson Barracks Civil War Historical Association, which is organizing the event.

From the morning of Saturday, June 21, through the afternoon of Sunday, June 22, visitors to the park will experience the feel of the Civil War.

Besides the obligatory battle re-enactments at 4 p.m. June 21 and 1:30 p.m. June 22, there will be plenty of events designed to bring people back to the time when "Johnny Reb" fought "Billy Yank."

Those include a period baseball game at 10:30 a.m. June 21, drills, period concerts at 8 p.m. each night, flag raisings and seminars of how people lived.

Organizers have such big plans that the whole park will be closed for the weekend to provide the needed space. Visitors coming into any entrance will pay a $2 parking fee for each car and be directed to parking. Proceeds go to the Friends of Jefferson Barracks for restoration of the second floor of the visitors center.

"It tries to show a little bit more the human side of the conflict," said J.D. Magurany, director of the Jefferson Barracks Historic Site. "It's something you can really bring your entire family to," Magurany said. "It really rings the history."

Visitors will actually experience four camps. In addition to the Union soldiers' camp at the northern end of the park and the Confederates' camp a little further south, there will be a civilian camp and a sutlers camp, portraying people who sold supplies to soldiers.

At the sutlers camp, visitors will be able to use various period reproductions.

Magurany said the Jefferson Barracks Civil War Historical Association tries every year to put together a large program to bring attention to the role of St. Louis and Jefferson Barracks in the Civil War.

Usually such events attract about 100 re-enactors, Magurany said. The Missouri Civil War Reenactment Association has told its members it is a "maximum

Schedule of events

From beginning to end, there will be plenty of ways for those at the Civil War re-enactment next weekend at Jefferson Barracks Park to take a historical look at the War Between the States.

Here is a schedule of the events set for Saturday and Sunday, June 21 and 22:

June 21:
6:30 a.m., reveille.
7 to 8 a.m., breakfast.
8 a.m. to 6 p.m., camps open to public.
8:30 to 9 a.m., flag raising and dress parade.
9 to 9:30 a.m., infantry drill and demonstration.
9:30 to 10 a.m., artillery drill and demonstration.
10 to 10:30 a.m., cavalry drill and demonstration.
9:15 to 10:30 a.m., ladies seminar with displays.
10:30 a.m. to noon, period baseball ("rounders") game, Yanks vs. Reds.
Noon to 1 p.m., lunch.
1 to 2 p.m., period clothing show.
1 to 2:30 p.m., military drills.
2:30 to 3:30 p.m., ladies seminar.
2 to 2:30 p.m., patriotic tableaux.
4 to 5 p.m., battle re-enactment.
5:30 to 6:30 p.m., dinner.
8 to 11 p.m., concert/dance, powder magazine, with Old Towne Brass Band, which also plays in camps throughout weekend.
Cost is $3 for adults and free for children under 12.

June 22:
6:30 a.m., reveille.
7 to 8 a.m., breakfast.
8 a.m., camps open to public and stay open until re-enactors or public goes home.
8 to 9 a.m., period church services.
9:30 to 10 a.m., flag raising and dress parade.
10 to 10:30 a.m., infantry drill and demonstration.
10:30 to 11:30 a.m., period fashion display.
10:30 to 11 a.m., artillery demonstration.
11 to 11:30 a.m., cavalry demonstration.
11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., lunch.
1:30 to 2 p.m., battle re-enactment.

effort event," Magurany said. That means if people attend only a small number of events, they should go to this one.

Let's Talk REAL ESTATE
by Jerry Besserman & Tina Stanley
REALTORS

WORKING FOR THE BUYER
The typical real estate transaction involves two real estate agents: the listing agent (with whom the seller lists the property) and the showing agent (who shows the property to prospective buyers). Buyers should note that both the listing agent and the showing agent work for the seller. Thus, neither of them is permitted to disclose to a buyer confidential information supplied by the seller that is adverse to the seller's interest in selling the property. Buyers who wish to preview that suit your personal taste and budget, Tina can be paged at 782-4300. Jerry can be paged at 782-3647. The office is conveniently located at 2125 Pontoon Rd.
HINT: A buyer's agent can be compensated by the total commission generated by a sale.

The front-wheel-drive Oldsmobile Cutlass is a conservative, import-oriented four-door.

Inside, the Cutlass is much like the Malibu, but the GLS has a higher quality of materials. The leather seats of our test car were most pleasant, even on warm days...Fingertip controls on the steering wheel make changing radio stations safer because you don't have to take your hands from the wheel.

The new Cutlass, as a part of Oldsmobile's Centennial Plan, joins the Silhouette, Aurora and soon-to-be-available Intrigue as the foundation for a completely new product line that emphasizes value, performance and function.

The base price of our test car was $19,225. Add in destination charges and the sticker was $19,698.

The basic warranty is for three years or 38,000 miles.

Point: The Cutlass GLS is a conservatively styled mid-size sedan that offers a lot of value for the money, which makes it an attractive alternative to an import.

Counterpoint: Outside, the styling lacks the boldness of the Aurora; inside, some plastic surfaces would be more appealing with a softer texture.

POINTS & PLUGS

By Rick Stoff

If you're traveling to Chicago this summer, make a note to drop by the Museum of Science and Industry. An exhibit on display there until Sept. 7 is called "Cars" and features 19 weird and unusual machines, such as flying and floating cars, from the 1930s through the 1960s.

Best-selling car for the month was the Toyota Camry. The Ford Taurus was fifth, then the Honda Accord and Honda Civic were seventh and eighth. In the hot battle for best-selling car bragging

Through April, 2.2 million cars and 2.2 million trucks had been built in the U.S. this year. The car total was down slightly from last year, while the truck total reflected a slight increase.

Ford has turned off the gas to Contours it sold with the capability to run on gasoline or compressed natural gas.

Until it figures out a fix, Ford has disabled the natural gas capability of the cars. Some owners have reported backfire problems after switching the engine from gasoline to natural gas usage. Some of the backfires have broken intake mani-

Ford has sold about 1,800 Contours that use the two fuels. It is the only gasoline/natural gas vehicle in the company's fleet. Ford also makes Tauruses that can run on gasoline, methanol or ethanol, and several vehicles — the Crown Victoria, pickup trucks and vans — that run only on compressed natural gas.

“We got ‘knock your socks off’ service.”

“Knock your socks off” service comes with every Saturn. Of course, we just call it bringing in your car. (Easier to pronounce.) It’s nothing fancy, though. Just remembering your name, doing things when we say they’ll be done, charging you fairly, and generally going above and beyond the call of duty. While you get to watch TV. You know, basic service. Hope to see you soon.
